

(b) Except in compelling circumstances as determined by the Assistant Secretary, EDA will not provide Planning Investments for multiple CEDS that address the needs of an identical or substantially similar Region.

(c) EDA will provide Planning Investments for the period of time required to develop, revise, or replace, and implement a CEDS, generally not to exceed thirty-six (36) months.

§ 303.5 Eligible administrative expenses.

(a) General. In accordance with applicable federal cost principles and as set forth in this section, EDA Planning Investments may be used to pay the direct and indirect costs incurred by a Planning Organization in the development and implementation of a CEDS.

(b) Direct costs. For purposes of this part, EDA Planning Investments may be used to pay costs of those activities directly attributable to a scope of work, as approved by EDA, for the purpose of developing and implementing a CEDS.

(c) Indirect costs. Costs of the Planning Organization's operation, including utilities, rent, technical assistance to customers and clients (e.g., grant writing, planning assistance, other economic development assistance, training, travel expenses), and miscellaneous expenses (e.g., supplies, insurance, overhead), may be eligible for reimbursement, but only to the extent that such costs relate to the development and implementation of a CEDS, involving a proactive continuous planning process that addresses the economic opportunities and constraints of a Region.

§ 303.6 EDA-funded CEDS process.

If EDA awards Investment Assistance to a Planning Organization to develop, revise or replace a CEDS, the Planning Organization must follow the procedures set forth in this section:

(a) The Planning Organization must appoint a Strategy Committee. The Strategy Committee must represent the main economic interests of the Region and must include Private Sector Representatives as a majority of its membership. In addition, the Planning

Organization should ensure that the Strategy Committee includes public officials, community leaders, representatives of workforce development boards, institutions of higher education, minority and labor groups, and private individuals. The Strategy Committee representing Indian Tribes or States may vary.

(b) The Planning Organization must develop and submit to EDA a CEDS that:

(1) Complies with the requirements of § 303.7; and

(2) Was made available for review and comment by the public for a period of at least thirty (30) days prior to submission to EDA.

(c)(1) After obtaining EDA approval of the CEDS, the Planning Organization must submit annually an updated CEDS performance report to EDA.

(2) The Planning Organization must submit a new or revised CEDS to EDA at least every five (5) years, unless EDA or the Planning Organization determines that a new or revised CEDS is required earlier due to changed circumstances.

(3) Any updated CEDS performance report that results in a change of the requirements set forth in § 303.7(b)(3) of the EDA-accepted CEDS or any new or revised CEDS, must be available for review and comment by the public in accordance with paragraph (b)(2) of this section.

(d) If EDA determines that implementation of the CEDS is inadequate, it will notify the Planning Organization in writing and the Planning Organization shall submit to EDA a new or revised CEDS.

(e) If any part of a Region is covered by one or more of the Regional Commissions as set forth in Section 404 of PWEDA, the Planning Organization shall ensure that a copy of the CEDS is provided to the Regional Commission(s).

§ 303.7 Requirements for Comprehensive Economic Development Strategies.

(a) General. CEDS are designed to bring together the public and private sectors in the creation of an economic roadmap to diversify and strengthen Regional economies. The CEDS should
